Online newsletters aren't meant to be printed: they're strictly an online tool. Links are included to do only that—link to another site when you click on the link.

2. Why doesn't the e-newsletter have the Luncheon Registration and other forms?

There are no forms to print out because the online newsletter was never intended to be printed. Click on the link to register online or be referred to a print-friendly version of the form if you prefer to pay by check.

8. If I can get a printable version of the newsletter just by requesting one, why should I use the online version?
